

Hello Families!

Summer at Kidzland has come to an end. We all had so much fun with the sprinkler days and water play, the field trip adventures, and the warm sunny days. Thank you to everyone who volunteered, chaperoned, and otherwise made our summer great!

Our Scholastic Book Club has started back up. Flyers will go home monthly. If you are interested in placing an order, follow the directions on the flyer, or stop by the desk and see Ms. Mandy.

September 9th is Grandparent's Day. To celebrate all the great Grandmas, Grandpas, Nanas, Papas, Mimis, and Gramps out there, Kidzland will be having a Grandparents Day Pancake Breakfast Buffet in the Gym on Friday September 7th from 8-9:30am. Space is limited, so please sign up at the office to attend.

Happy Fall!

Baby Sign Language

Baby sign language is a great way to communicate with your baby or toddler! It helps them learn to communicate their wants and needs in a way that can be understood.

Signing: To do the baby sign for apple, make your hand into a fist then extend the index finger knuckle (your index finger is the one next to your thumb). Bring the knuckle to your cheek and twist it. Imagine your cheek was an apple and you are twisting off the stalk. Apple is quite a complex sign and you will see this simplified a lot at first. Often the baby will just place their fingers on their cheek, or twist their hand near their cheek.

Usage: We mainly use Apple as a Food sign. Our baby loves cut up pieces of apple, so I will do the apple sign before and during eating slices of apple. I will say "Do you want some apple?" as I put the apple in front of her. Then I reinforce it as she eats by saying something like, "mmm, apple."
